

Combining two leading U.S. Mennonite journalistic ministries will strengthen independent Anabaptist journalism for years to come.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

Are The Mennonite and Mennonite World Review merging?

Yes! The Mennonite Inc. and Mennonite World Review Inc. are merging to form a new independent journalistic ministry with a vision to inform and inspire Mennonites and all those interested in Anabaptism. We will have a new name, a new magazine and a new website. Like MWR, the new organization will not be affiliated with any denomination or conference. And like The Mennonite, it will give priority to serving the members of MC USA, who are also MWR's largest constituency. The vision will continue MWR's mission of "serving the global Anabaptist movement" and fulfills The Mennonite's goal of being "a forum for Mennonite voices." You'll want to see what's next!

What happens to my subscription to The Mennonite in September?

Beginning in September, you will receive a new, independent magazine that combines the best of The Mennonite and Mennonite World Review and adds features you've never seen before. Everyone with time left on their subscription to The Mennonite will have that time added on to your subscription of the new magazine. For those who subscribe to both The Mennonite and Mennonite World Review, your remaining time will be combined and added to your new subscription.

How much will the new magazine cost? Will there still be group subscriptions?

The cost of the new magazine is still to be determined. If you are part of a group subscription to The Mennonite, you can maintain your group going forward.

How will renewals to the new magazine happen?

We are rebuilding our online subscription renewal system so that it works better than the current one. In addition to the online renewal option, subscribers will still be able to renew by mail.
